Code of Conduct

The parent/guardian understands that participating in Camp Sol Taplin is contingent upon the parent/guardian and the camper's adherence to the Code of Conduct, and violation of said Code of Conduct may result in either suspension or dismissal from summer camp without a refund.

Camp Sol Taplin is committed to making the camp environment safe and fun for everyone. Accordingly, all campers and their parents acknowledge the Code of Conduct to demonstrate their understanding of and compliance with our camp's behavior expectations. No child will be admitted to camp without an electronic signature from the parent/guardian. Moreover, failure to comply with its principles may result in immediate suspension or dismissal from camp without a refund. We urge you to review the following information closely with your child(ren).

CAMP SOL TAPLIN PARTICIPANTS ARE REQUIRED TO DO THE FOLLOWING:

1. Be active listeners, cooperate, and follow directions given by camp staff and other MARJCC personnel.

3. Refrain from using rude, offensive, or inappropriate language. Harsh verbal words, tone of voice, foul language or gestures will not be tolerated.
4. Keep hands and bodies to themselves. If physical contact is made with another person, it must be both welcomed and appropriate. Teasing, horseplay, pushing, kicking, hitting, fighting, bullying, or harassment will not be tolerated.

is not possible to anticipate every situation that may arise. In the absence of a particular situation or activity not listed above, COMMON SENSE AND COURTESY SHALL PREVAIL.

If camp staff sees your child is having difficulty within the structure we provided, Camp Sol Taplin reserves the right to have a behavioral specialist conduct an observation and oversee the implementation of behavior modification programs with staff and your child. If, after implementing these procedures, your child continues to experience difficulty, camp staff may recommend that they participate in a "shadow program," which, if available, may be provided at an additional fee.

Camp Sol Taplin implements a system of camper monitoring to provide an incomparable experience for all campers. If Camp Sol Taplin determines that a camper is failing to adhere to this Code of Conduct, presents a safety, behavioral or other concern that is detrimental to the camper, other campers, staff or MARJCC employees, or the overall camp experience, Camp Sol Taplin reserves the right to enforce consequences. These consequences may include, but are not limited to, the limitation of privileges, verbal and written warnings, parental notification, or, in extreme cases, dismissal from Camp Sol Taplin without a refund. Additionally, campers who repeatedly fail to adhere to the Code of Conduct may not be permitted to attend Camp Sol Taplin or participate in MARJCC activities in the future.

Sick Policy

A fever of 100.4° or higher requires the child to stay at home until the fever has been gone for at least 24 hours.

Should your child become ill while at camp, you will receive a call requesting pick-up within 30 minutes. Every family should have a contingency plan in place if the parent is unavailable to pick up the sick child. A sick child will stay with a staff member in an isolated area until pick-up.

A doctor's note is required for any child who has displayed symptoms to return to camp.

I, as an individual or as a parent or guardian of the participant(s) named herein above, release from responsibility, agree to indemnify and hold harmless the MARJCC, its officers, directors, independent contractors, volunteers and all employees for any illness or injury to me, my children or family members. I hereby authorize the MARJCC to secure proper medical treatment from a hospital or physician for my child(ren) in the event of an emergency, with the cost to be paid by the member. The member's account must be current and in good standing, if membership is required to be eligible for classes or programs. If this is not the case, all monies received from the member will first be applied toward membership dues.
